

ST ANN'S HEATH

PARENT GOVERNOR VACANCY

Have you ever thought about joining the school's governing body?

Do you have an interest in education and the welfare of children?

Do you have good interpersonal, teamwork and communication skills?

Are you willing to learn and attend relevant training and meetings?

If so, this might be the role for you!

We are currently seeking two new parent governors to join our governing body with the specific remit of bringing a parental perspective to the governor team.
